

Legal Notice and Terms of Use

Privacy Policy. When you visit this website, some information such as your Internet address, Internet Service Provider, operating system, the site from which you linked, and the time and date of your visit may be collected automatically as part of the software operation of this site. This may include things like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses and other system information. We may use this information to compile aggregate statistics about the total number of daily visitors to our site, the pages most frequently visited, and how long people stay at each page, as well as to investigate potential security incidents and vulnerabilities associated with the use or abuse of this site.

We also may collect personal information, including email addresses and other information you choose to provide at various times, such as when you complete an online form or request. The personal information we collect online is used to process your requests, to tell you about opportunities we think will be of interest, and to understand your needs so that we can serve you better. For example, we may use your email address to alert you about information we think will be of special interest.

How we store and protect your personal information. Information collected online is electronically stored. WWMA does not sell, rent, share or disclose information that identifies you personally to any other organization. WWMA is not responsible for any additional information you provide to these parties, and we encourage you to become familiar with their practices before disclosing information to them.

Apart from this, we disclose personal information only in the good faith belief that we are required to do so by law, or that by doing so is reasonably necessary to: comply with legal process; respond to any claims; or protect the rights, property or personal safety of WWMA, its members, our customers or the public.

What are cookies and are you required to accept them? Your browser gives you the option to accept or decline cookies. Cookies are small pieces of text stored on your computer that help us know where you've been on our site and what pages to present to you next. They also tell us what pages are being viewed and which are not. This helps us design the site to make your experience easier.

Use of this web site by children. WWMA encourages parents to take an active interest in their children's use of the Internet. WWMA does not intend to collect information from children who identify themselves as less than 18 years of age. If you are under 18, you should not provide information on this site and should ask your parent to do so for you.

Changes to this Policy. WWMA reserves the right to change these TERMS AND CONDITIONS of USE at any time, but will alert you that changes have been made by indicating the date the terms were last updated. We encourage you to review our terms of use whenever you use this website.

Choice of Law and Jurisdiction. The contents of this website are governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Nebraska, and any claims arising directly or indirectly out of any materials contained on this site are subject to the laws of the Commonwealth of Nebraska.

Severability and Integration. Unless otherwise specified herein, this agreement constitutes the entire agreement between you and WWMA with respect to this web site and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals (whether oral, written or electronic) between you and WWMA with respect to this site. If any part of these TERMS OF USE is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion shall be construed in a manner consistent with applicable law to reflect, as nearly as possible, the original intentions of the parties, and the remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.
